Copenhagen, November 11th, 2004

Dear Mr. Møller,

With regret I have received the letter of Mr. Morten Roland informing me that no member of the Defense Committee will be able to take part in The 3rd Meeting of Cetinje Parliamentary Forum.

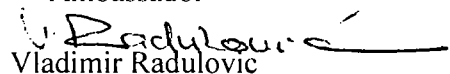

I take the liberty of addressing you in this way hoping that you and the members of the Defense Committee could reconsider the invitation once again. I am enclosing herewith the joint letter of the President of the Committee for Defense of Serbia and Montenegro's Parliament, Mr. Borislav Banovic, and President of the Committee for Security of Montenegro's Parliament, Mr. Dragan Kujovic, as well as the Draft Agenda of the Meeting.

I need not say that we would highly appreciate your positive decision with this regard, since we deeply believe that Denmark, as one of the most prominent countries in the field of security, respect of democratic values and parliamentary democracy, could highly contribute to the overall stability of the region. One of the tools for such achievement is multilateral, as well as parliamentary cooperation, and the participation of a member of the Folketing's Defense Committee to the 3rd Meeting of Cetinje Parliamentary Forum would further contribute to establishing and implementing those values in Serbia and Montenegro.

Hoping that you would oblige me, I remain

Sincerely yours,

Ambassador

Vladimir Radulovic
