

Symposium on Fibromyalgia in Copenhagen

The symposium takes place at H:S Copenhagen University Hospital, Rigshospitalet, Auditorium 1, April, Monday 3rd 4.00 – 6.30 pm 2006

4.00 – 4.10 pm	Welcome	Head of Department of Rheumatology, H:S Copenhagen University Hospital, Rigshospitalet Søren Jacobsen, MD DMSc., Chairman of the symposium
4.10 – 4.50 pm	The Contemporary Understanding of Fibromyalgia	Professor Robert Bennett MD, FRCP, FACP, Oregon Health & Science University, Portland, Oregon, U.S.A.
4.50 – 5.15 pm	Fibromyalgia in Europe	Professor KG Henriksson, MD, DMSc., Docent Neuromuskulära Enheten och Smärtkliniken Universitetssjukhuset Linköping,
5.15 – 5.30 pm	New approaches in quantitative sensory assessment in fibromyalgia	Professor Thomas Graven Nielsen DMSc., Centre of Sensory Motory Interaction (SMI) University of Aalborg
5.30 – 5.45 pm	Pain Mediators in Fibromyalgia	Professor Henning Bliddal, MD DMSc., The Parker Institute, H:S Copenhagen University Hospital, Frederiksberg Hospital
5.45 – 5.55 pm	New Diagnostic Aspects - Functional MRI in Fibromyalgia	Director of Research Bente Danneskiold-Samsøe, MD DMSc., The Parker Institute, H:S Copenhagen University Hospital, Frederiksberg Hospital
6.00 – 6.30 pm	Panel discussion	Moderator of the Panel Discussion, Chair of Danish Society of Rheumatology, Jesper Nørregaard, MD DMSc., Robert Bennett, Thomas Graven Nielsen, KG Henriksson, Henning Bliddal, Bente Danneskiold-Samsøe

The Fibromyalgia Symposium is dedicated to Specialists in Rheumatology, Pain disorders, Neurologists, Practitioners and other Health Professionals such as Nurses, physiotherapists and occupational therapists.

The symposium is organized in collaboration with the Danish Society of Rheumatology, The Danish Fibromyalgia Association, The Danish Rheumatism Association, Medicon Valley Academy and The Parker Institute.