

Stockholm April 27, 2007

Seminar on implementation of congestion charging May, 30, 2007

Location: City Conference Centre, Drottninggatan 71 B, Stockholm, Sweden

Final program

09.30-10

Coffee

10-12

Welcome and introduction

Dr Lena Smidfelt Rosqvist – Programme director TransportMistra

The Story of the Stockholm Congestion Charging Trial

Dr Muriel Beser Hugosson – former Project Manager at the Congestion Charge Secretariat, Trivector Traffic

Congestion charging in London

Ms. Lucinda Turner – Policy Manager - Congestion Charging

Public Acceptability of Road User Charging: The Case of Edinburgh and the 2005 Referendum

Mr. Martin Gaunt, Steer Davies Gleave &

Mr. John Saunders, involved in developing the congestion charging scheme for Edinburgh

“How Oslo is about to fail”: The case of Oslo, Norway.

Mr. Arvid Strand, The Institute of Transport Economics

12-13

Lunch

13-13.30

Urban pricing – how, why, when?

Dr Karin Brundell-Freji – from the Expert evaluation committee for the Stockholm trial

13.30-14.30

Workshops on implementation issues

In different workshops the practitioners and the researchers will exchange experiences on implementing measures such as congestion charging. Success and failure will be scrutinised, and the driving forces for or against such measures will be discussed.

14.30-15

Coffee

15-16

Workshops on implementation issues

16-17

Summary and conclusions of the workshops

Plenary discussion