Delegation of the Federal Republic of Germany to the Parliamentary Assembly of the OSCE PA

To the Heads of national delegations to the Parliamentary Assembly of the OSCE

11011 Berlin, 13 December 2007
Platz der Republik 1

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Having hosted the successful Expert Meeting on Best Practices in Combating Antisemitism in November 2006, the German delegation in the OSCE Parliamentary Assembly (OSCE PA) is currently organizing an Expert Forum on "Combating Antisemitism – Challenges and Successful Strategies".

The purpose of this event is to facilitate an exchange of experience between the members of the 56 delegations to the OSCE PA, Members of the German Bundestag, academics and experts, and representatives of civil society. It will take place on Friday, 25 January 2008

in the German Bundestag, Berlin: Marie-Elisabeth Lüders Building, Adele-Schreiber-Krieger-Straße 1, Conference Room 3.101 (Level 3)

Before the official opening of the event, there will be an opportunity to watch the German Bundestag's service of remembrance on the occasion of Victims of National Socialism Day, which will take place from 09.00 – 10.00 hrs.

A draft programme and registration form are enclosed. The working languages for which interpretation will be provided are German, English, French and Russian.

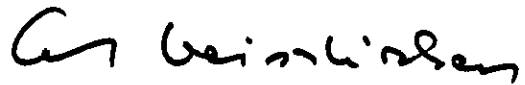

We very much hope that you or one member of your delegation will be interested in participating in the Forum.

In anticipation of a fruitful exchange of views, we remain

Yours sincerely,

Dr. h.c. Wolfgang Thierse
Vice-President of the German Bundestag
Head of the German Delegation
in the OSCE PA

Professor Gert Weisskirchen
Member of the German Delegation
in the OSCE PA
Personal Representative of the Chairman-in-Office of the OSCE on Combating Antisemitism
