Mr Chairman,

France will undertake the presidency of the European Union Council on July 1st 2008. On that occasion, the Justice and Home affairs Committees of the Senate and the National Assembly are truly honoured to invite you to participate in the meeting of the Chairpersons of the Justice and Home Affairs Committees of the national parliaments of the EU member states, the candidate countries and the European parliament.

This meeting will take place on September 15th in Paris at the Luxemburg Palace, the seat of the Senate. The day before, a dinner will be held in the Bourbon Palace, the seat of the National Assembly.

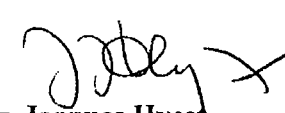

The central topics of the meeting will be "The European coordination of immigration" and "The strengthening of the judicial cooperation in the European Union".

In order to set up the meeting, we would be very grateful if you could transmit our invitation to the president of your assembly's committee in charge of these topics. If he couldn't attend this meeting, one of his colleagues may stand in for him of course.

On the practical side, some early bookings have been made, on favourable terms and conditions, in one hotel. However, you ought to pay attention to deadlines, since your booking confirmation must be return before August 1st.

We are looking forward, Mr Chairman, to welcoming you to Paris for this important interparliamentary meeting and send our best regards.

Jean-Luc Warsmann
Chairman of the Justice and
Home affairs Committee
of the National Assembly

Jean-Jacques Huest
Chairman of the Justice and
Home affairs Committee
of the Senate
