Hr. Thor PEDERSEN
Formand for Folketinget
Folketinget
Christiansborg
DK - 1240 KØBENHAVN

Hr. formand,

Det glæder mig at kunne invitere repræsentanter for Deres parlament til at deltage i den parlamentariske konference på højt plan om sammenhæng i udviklings- og migrationspolitikken. Konferencen, som arrangeres i samarbejde med Europa-Parlamentet, Kommissionen og Organisationen for Økonomisk Samarbejde og Udvikling (OECD), er et led i EU's og OECD's bestræbelser på at fremme sammenhæng i udviklingspolitikken.

Konferencen vil finde sted i Europa-Parlamentet i Bruxelles torsdag den 12. februar 2009.

Ikke kun udviklingspolitikken har betydning for udviklingslandene. Formålet med at skabe sammenhæng i udviklingspolitikken er at frembringe synergi mellem disse politikker og målene for udviklingssamarbejdet med henblik på at hjælpe de fattige lande til at opfylde årtusindudviklingsmålene.

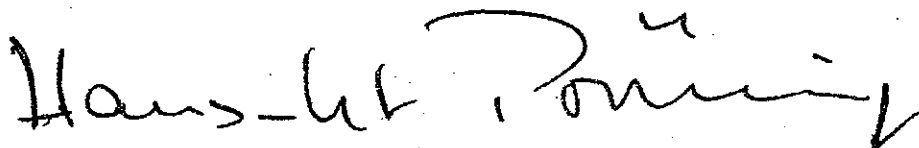

I denne forbindelse vil den parlamentariske konference på højt plan fungere som et politisk forum for udveksling af synspunkter angående migrationspolitikkerne og disses udviklingsdimension i indvandrernes hjemlande med henblik på at understrege betydningen af sammenhæng i udviklings- og migrationspolitikken. Deltagerne fra de nationale parlamenter og Europa-Parlamentet vil drøfte erfaringerne fra OECD-, AVS- og EU-landene, herunder arbejdskraftens mobilitet, højt kvalificerede og lavt kvalificerede migranter og resultaterne af den bæredygtige udvikling.

Til mødet ønsker vi at invitere en delegation på fire parlamentsrepræsentanter fra udvalg med ansvar for udvikling og migration i hvert land. Det samlede antal delegerede gælder også for parlamenter med to kamre. En embedsmand for hver to medlemmer kan medsendes.

Vedlagt udkastet til mødeprogram; her findes også flere oplysninger om tilmelding og den overordnede tilrettelæggelse af mødet (på engelsk). De bedes bekræfte Deres deltagelse i mødet ved at returnere tilmeldingsblanketten.

Tak for Deres støtte til dette fælles initiativ.

Med venlig hilsen

Background Note

Objective: to organise a high level parliamentary conference in Brussels in February 2009 in order to exchange views and experiences regarding the impact of EU and OECD member states' migration policies – and other non-development policies – on development in migrants' countries of origin. This is the subject of policy debates known as Policy Coherence for Development (PCD). The event would result in raised awareness and more informed discussion on Migration and could lead to the creation of a parliamentary Task Force on Policy Coherence for Development and Migration, which could follow up Migration and PCD issues and exchange information on best practices.

Rationale: How do migration-related policy decisions taken in EU and OECD member states affect economic and social progress in migrants' countries of origin? This is the fundamental question posed by the debate on Policy Coherence for Development in the area of migration. The aim of the proposed conference is to raise the awareness of parliamentarians of issues related to this discussion. The conference will be based on presentations of available data on migration trends of the various regions of origin underlining the specificities of the PCD issues. It will provide a political space for exchange of views and experiences on topics related to migration policies and their development dimension in migrants' countries of origin. Debates among parliamentarians will be introduced by High Level keynote speakers and experts. The conference will highlight experiences in OECD and EU countries with varied dimensions of international migration, including debates surrounding highly-skilled and low-skilled migration flows, differences in policy perspectives between migrants' countries of origin, transit and destination, migration from the East; integration and circulation etc. The conference will feature interventions from non-EU OECD countries and ACP countries, drawing upon experiences of Mexico, the United States, Canada and Asian/Pacific countries. Given that the conference will coincide with the EP's EU-ACP Week, particular attention will be paid to perspectives on international migration, including the question of regional migration. By promoting open debates and the sharing of creative solutions, the conference will raise awareness of the desirability of a multidimensional perspective on migration policy, and of greater coherence between migration and development policies, which too often are dealt with in isolation by national authorities. The cultural dimension of migration will be considered and the intercultural dialogue between participants from different countries and continents will provide an additional dimension to the debates.

Migration is high on the global political agenda as shown by the follow-up conferences to the UN High-level Dialogue on International Migration and Development (Brussels 2007 and Manila 2008). Migration is of great relevance to the Policy Coherence debate: the EU, proposed a specific framework for Policy Coherence for Development in the April 2005 Commission Communication on "Policy Coherence for Development – Accelerating progress towards attaining the MDGs". As a result, in May 2005 the Council agreed to EU PCD commitments in 12 areas: trade, environment, climate change, security, agriculture, fisheries, social dimension of globalisation, migration, research and innovation, information society, transport and energy. This emphasis on PCD was confirmed by the European Consensus on Development and Policy Coherence is now considered as an important contribution to development in addition to aid.

PCD is high on the political agenda of many countries. With respect to migration, these include countries of origin, transit, destination and return – and increasingly, many countries are all four at once. The proposed conference will inform and encourage decision makers in promoting development-friendly legislation related to migration.

The sponsoring organisations are well-placed to facilitate this dialogue on migration and development. The OECD has a long experience of work in both PCD issues and international migration, including a current initiative entitled Managing Labour Migration for Economic Growth (due to be finalised by the end of 2008) and it has a close collaboration with the Economic Community Of West African States on the implementation of a West African Common approach on Migration. The EC, meanwhile, has prepared a Staff Working Paper on Migration and Policy Coherence as part of the April 2008 Package Communication and will be preparing the 2nd PCD report for September 2009. The Africa EU Partnership on Migration, Mobility and Employment, established in 2007 reflects a commitment to address migration and mobility issues in the framework of labour market disparities in the EU and Africa context. The Conference will provide a rich source of information and sharing of experiences as well as provide a forum for the concerted efforts of OECD and the EU to promote policy coherence for development.

REGISTRATION AND ORGANISATIONAL ARRANGEMENTS

1. Participants

National Parliaments:

- 4 Members per national Parliament

The number of participants is flexible. The aim is to ensure representation of both houses in a bicameral system (in principle 2 + 2) and from across the political spectrum (majority and opposition).

As is customary for parliamentary meetings, parliamentary administrators and the permanent representatives of national Parliaments to the European Parliament may accompany the national delegation (one person per two Members).

MEPs:

All the Committee on Development Members

MEPs from other Committees will also be invited (LIBE, EMPL).

The Secretariat of the Committee on Development, the EP political group secretariats, representatives from the European Commission, representatives from the OECD and MEPs' assistants will have access to the meeting.

ACP parliamentary representatives:

All ACP representatives from the ACP-EU Joint Parliamentary Assembly

2. Registration

Please return the completed registration form no later than 30 January 2009. The email address for registration is leena.luoma@europarl.europa.eu

We would be really pleased if the registration forms were sent as soon as possible due to room and interpretation arrangements and at the latest by 30 January 2009, to the suggested e-mail address in the form.

3. Arrival of members of national Parliaments

Registration facilities will be provided on Thursday 12 February starting from 10.00 on the ground floor of the Paul Henry Spaak building, rue Wiertz 60, before the opening of the High Level Parliamentary Conference.

Members of national Parliaments will be given an access badge.

A secure wardrobe will be guaranteed.

A set of documents will be available in the meeting room.

Proceedings will break from 12.30 to 14.00. A welcome buffet lunch will be hosted by the European Parliament, the European Commission and the OECD during this break.

4. Interpretation facilities

Active interpretation will be available in 19 languages of the European Union (BG, CS, DA, DE, EL, EN, ES, ET, FR, HU, IT, LT, NL, PL, PT, RO, SK, SL, SV).

5. Speaking Times

The speaking time per intervention will be limited to two minutes. The rotation of speakers will follow the rule of two national Parliament representatives for every one MEP.
