

Dansk Institut for Menneskerettigheder, Centre for European Constitutionalization,
International Commission of Jurists og Retssikkerhedsfonden

inviterer til arrangement om
Domstolsprocedurer i terrørsager:

Anti-Terrorism Special Courts
&
Administrative Expulsions

Venue: Danish Institute for Human Rights, Main Auditorium
Strandgade 71, ground floor, 1401 Copenhagen K

Time: Monday, 4 May 2009 (14.00 – 17.00)

Key note speakers:

Sir Nicholas Blake	High Court judge, former Special Advocate, United Kingdom
Dr. Eric Metcalfe	Director of Human Rights Policy at Justice, United Kingdom
Mr. Claes Nilas	Permanent Secretary at the Ministry for Integration, Denmark
NN	Defence Lawyer, Denmark

Program:

14.00 – 14.10:	Welcome – Setting the Scene Professor and Head of Centre for European Constitutionalization, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen, Mr. Henning Koch (moderator)
14.10 – 14.30:	Background considerations in regards to the governmental report and draft bill on administrative expulsions Mr. Claes Nilas, Permanent Secretary at the Ministry for Integration
14.30 – 14.50:	The present system versus the new proposal - a perspective from a Danish defence lawyer NN, Defence Lawyer
14.50 – 15.00:	Coffee break
15.00 – 15.30:	The UK-experience with the use of special advocates Sir Nicholas Blake, High Court judge and former Special Advocate, the United Kingdom

- 15.30 – 16.00: The use of special advocates from a human rights perspective
Dr. Eric Metcalfe, Barrister and Director of Human Rights Policy at Justice, the United Kingdom
- 16.00 – 17.00: Open floor discussion
Moderator: Mr. Henning Koch, Professor and Head of Centre for European Constitutionalization, Faculty of Law, University of Copenhagen
- 17.00: Closing remarks

Practical Information:

The seminar will be held in English.

Participation is free of charge, but registration is required.

Please, register to post@retssikkerheds-fonden.dk - no later than 30 April 2009