Dear Madam, Sir,

The OECD would like to alert you to the upcoming one-day OECD High-level Parliamentary Seminar on the topic “The OECD at 50: better Policies for Better Lives”, which will take place at the OECD Conference Centre in Paris on Thursday, 24 February 2011.

This seminar is open to representatives from the parliamentary/legislative branch of government. It offers an exceptional opportunity for parliamentarians and legislators to exchange views with their colleagues and OECD experts on a range of key issues. The seminar will likely focus on the following topics:

- Measuring progress and well-being
- Green Growth
- Anti-corruption
- Development

We are also considering a dinner the evening of 23 February, if there is strong interest from parliamentarians.

A draft programme will be posted on the OECD website in the near future (www.oecd.org/parliamentarians).

I would be very grateful if you could inform Jennifer Bisping, Senior Public Affairs Manager [jennifer.bisping@oecd.org; Tel: +33 (0) 1 45 24 93 26] and Silvia Terrón [silvia.terron@oecd.org; Tel: +33 (0) 1 45 24 95 72] if you can accept this invitation. Please also indicate if you'd be joining the dinner the evening of 23 February.

I look forward very much to welcoming you to Paris for this important event.

Yours sincerely,

Willemien Bax
