

G20 | YOUTH FORUM

Mr. Mogens Lykketoft
Speaker of the Parliament
Danemark

Saint-Petersburg, 22 November 2012

Dear Mr Lykketoft,

The G20 Youth Forum will take place in Saint-Petersburg, Russia, from 17 to 21 April 2013 just a few months before the meeting of the G-20 Heads of States in the same city.

G20 Youth Forum will be the largest international event organized for young leaders in 2013, and about 1500 young leaders, parliamentarians, students and academics, representatives of the business world, governments and international organizations will be participating in it.

The G20 Youth Forum 2013 has 4 main events which will run in tandem with each other:

- ✓ G20 Youth Summit – resulting in the Communiqué
- ✓ Conference - with publication of academic articles in the Conference Journal
- ✓ International Young Parliamentarians' Debate - with Joint Statement
- ✓ Alumni's Meeting of 2006 - 2012 Summits participants - with Joint enterprise initiatives

We would like to invite you to nominate a maximum of 10 young parliamentarians to participate at our International Young Parliamentarians' Debate.

Young Parliamentarians' Debate is a meeting of international young parliamentarians from all the G20 countries, who are under 45 years of age, with the purpose of exchanging ideas and experience in all the aspects of creating and implementing legislation.

The objective of the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate is to create and sign a joint statement and declaration of cooperation between all the young G20 parliamentarians. During the International Young Parliamentarians' Debate around 200 participants from state parliaments and youth parliaments of G20 countries will discuss common problems in the format of 3 groups working in parallel: Committee on international social affairs, Committee on business and entrepreneurship, innovation, transport and energy, Committee on finance, budget allocation, economic policy, financial markets, how to deal with corruption.

The Joint Statement will be disseminated throughout the world and shared, in particular, with the G-20 Heads of States and leading international organizations such as IMF, World Bank, OECD, European Commission and Basel Committee of Banking Supervision.

The Young Parliamentarians' Debate adds value not only to the G20 leaders' efforts in responding to the global economic and financial challenges, but also it serves as a unique opportunity for the participants to gather together in an exchange of ideas and best practice, encouraging stronger personal and professional relationships.
