Emne: Conference Invitation: Central Banking at a Crossroads, Europe and Beyond, 29-30 January 2013

The Danish Institute for International Studies (DIIS) is pleased to invite you to the following conference on the future of Central Banking in the context of the European crisis:

Central Banking at a Crossroads: Europe and Beyond
29-30 January 2013
Axelborg
Axelborgsalen
Vesterbrogade 4A, 1620 Copenhagen K

Given your position as Chairman of the Financial Committee at the Danish Parliament, we thought you could be interested in attending and would be delighted if you decided to do so. We would also appreciate it if you could forward the invitation to the rest of the committee.

Structured around two workshops, the conference will take on two central questions in the post-crisis debate on how to restore stability to financial systems:

Tuesday, 29 January 9.00-18.00: Workshop 1

Bank Resolution in Comparative Perspective: What Lessons for Europe?

Wednesday, 30 January 9.00-18.30: Workshop 2

Central Banking in an Age of Collateral-Based Finance: Where Next for the ECB?

The keynote speakers for the conference include:

Anat Admati, Professor, Stanford University
Charles Goodhart, Professor, London School of Economics
Erkki Liikanen, Governor, Bank of Finland
Perry Mehrling, Professor, Columbia University
Manmohan Singh, Senior Economist, IMF

Please find attached an invitation with detailed information about the programme and the invited speakers. Feel free to circulate it in your networks to anybody that is potentially interested in attending. Academics, regulators, journalists and students are all welcome to register.

Participation is free of charge, but registration is required. Please use our online registration form as soon as possible and no later than Friday, 18 January 2013 at 12.00 noon. Please await confirmation by e-mail from DIIS.

The conference is funded by Copenhagen Business School (CBS), the Danish Central Bank, Danske Bank, the European Cooperation in Science and Technology (COST), Finansrådet, Nordea, Nykredit and DIIS.

Sincerely

Global Economy, Regulation and Development Research Group
