

Personal invitation

On the occasion of the Leadership Meeting on Addressing Inequalities in the Post-2015 Development Agenda co-hosted by the governments of Denmark and Ghana together with the heads of UNICEF and UN Women, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs requests the pleasure of your personal attendance at a reception on Monday 18 February 2013 from 18:30-20:00

UN City Copenhagen, Marmorvej 51, Copenhagen

Programme:

18:30	Arrival and registration of guests
19:00	Welcoming words by Christian Friis Bach, Minister for Development Cooperation
19:05	Speech by Her Royal Highness Crown Princess Mary
19:15	Musical performance
20:00	Reception ends

Dress code: Business suit

The invitation is strictly personal and cannot be transferred. Registration must be completed before 4 February 2013 at the following link: www.ereg.me/inequalities2015, password: dcs1. For security reasons, guests registered to attend the reception must be present at the venue at the latest at 18:30 hrs. Please present a copy of the invitation and valid photo ID (passport or EU drivers' license) to gain access. Given the large number of guests, all participants are strongly advised to arrive early. Guests not registered for participation in the reception and/or not able to present a valid passport will not be allowed access. Doors will be closed at 18:45. Guests arriving after 18:45 will not be able to attend the reception. Any questions can be directed to inequalities2015@um.dk.

The UN City Copenhagen:

The new UN City in Copenhagen is located on Marmorvej 51, Copenhagen, a new street in Copenhagen harbour. When it opens in spring of 2013 it will house the headquarters of all UN agencies present in Denmark, including the headquarters of UNOPS, UNICEF Supply Division, UNDP Nordic Office, UNFPA Nordic Office, WHO Regional Office for Europe and WFP Nordic Office.

Finding the UN City in Copenhagen:

You can reach the UN City by taxi and should show the driver this map. The UN City can be reached with train to Nordhavn station from which it is a 10 minute walk.

