

Seminar om vurderingen af troværdighed i asylproceduren

Fredag den 20. september 2013
Eigtveds Pakhus, sal III

Dansk Flygtningehjælp inviterer medarbejdere fra asylkontorerne i Udlændingestyrelsen til et seminar med et konkret og praksisnært fokus på de udfordringer, der knytter sig an til vurderingen af troværdighed i asylproceduren.

Underviser på dagen er Gábor Gyulai, som er koordinator for Flygtningeprogrammet i Hungarian Helsinki Committee (HHC). Gábor har i flere år undervist og har været ledende i organiseringen af "CREDO" projektet "Improved Credibility Assessment in EU asylum procedures". CREDO er finansieret af Europa Kommissionen (Juli 2011-Maj 2013) og er et samarbejde mellem UNHCR, International Association of Refugee Law Judges, Asylum Aid samt HHC. Indholdet af undervisningen vil trække på erfaringer fra CREDO, hvis formål er at forbedre troværdighedsvurderingen i asylprocedurerne i EU.

Seminaret er udelukkende forbeholdt medarbejdere fra asylkontorerne i Udlændingestyrelsen.

Program

9.00-9.30	Welcome by Eva Singer, Head of Asylum Department, DRC Introduction & Case study by Gábor Gyulai,
9.30-10.00	The procedural framework of credibility assessment
10.00-10.30	The concept of credibility and credibility assessment; credibility indicators
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.15	Factors distorting credibility assessment and how to tackle them through multidisciplinary learning
11.15-12.15	Distorting factors I. – recalling and presenting information
12.30-13.30	Lunch Break
13.30-14.30	Distorting factors II. – transmitting information
14.30-15.00	Distorting factors III. – receiving and understanding information
15.00-15.30	Coffee Break
15.30-16.30	Guiding principles of credibility assessment; the way forward (discussion)

Seminaret vil blive afholdt på engelsk.

Tilmelding skal ske per e-mail til signe.soendergaard@drc.dk senest den 2. september

CREDIBILITY ASSESSMENT IN ASYLUM PROCEDURES
- IMPROVING OBJECTIVITY IN A MULTIDISCIPLINARY FRAMEWORK -

Interactive training seminar

19 September 2013

8.30-9.00	Coffee and Registration
9.00-9.30	Welcome by Eva Singer, Head of Asylum Department, DRC & B.O. Jespersen, Chairman of The Refugee Appeals Board
9.30-10.00	Introduction, case study
10.00-10.30	Introduction to the legal framework for credibility assessment in the asylum system, by Cecilie Becker-Christensen Saenz Guerrero, UNHCR
10.30-11.00	Coffee break
11.00-11.30	What is credibility? What is credibility assessment? How does it fit the procedural framework of asylum procedures?
11.30-11.45	Factors distorting credibility assessment and how to tackle them through multidisciplinary learning
11.45-12.45	Distortion factors I – recalling and presenting information
12.45-13.45	Lunch break
13.45-14.45	Distortion factors II – transmitting information
14.45-15.15	Distortion factors III – receiving and understanding information
15.15-15.45	Coffee break
15.45-17.00	Guiding principles of credibility assessment; the way forward (discussion)
17.00-18.00	Wine and snacks

Trainer: Gábor Gyulai, refugee programme coordinator and international trainer at the Hungarian Helsinki Committee

The content benefits from the achievements of the international "CREDO" project, funded by the European Commission (July 2011-May 2013).