Sundheds- og Forebyggelsesudvalget 2014-15 SUU Alm.del Bilag 71 Offentligt

The British Government has completed its international study of approaches to drugs misuse and drug addiction. Over the last eighteen months, ministers and officials from the Home Office in the UK have gathered and reviewed evidence on a range of policy and operational responses to drugs around the world including Denmark.

Please feel free to pass the report on to relevant MP's.
