

Cornelia Möhring

The Left Party

Socio-economist

Studied (in the framework of adult education) at Hamburg University of Economics and Politics, specialising in organisational sociology and social psychology; then completed a postgraduate degree in socio-economics, specialising in “feminist” research and the advancement of women. Before election to the German Bundestag was a self-employed consultant to works councils and staff councils.

Chairwoman of the Schleswig Holstein Land branch of the Left Party from 2007 to 2009; Member of the German Bundestag since 2009; Deputy Chairwoman and spokeswoman on women's policy for the Left Party parliamentary group in the Bundestag

Membership of Bundestag bodies:

- Deputy Chairwoman of the Committee on Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth
- Member of Working Group IV: Lifestyles and Knowledge
- Deputy Chairwoman of the Parliamentary Friendship Group for Relations with Australia and New Zealand
- Deputy Chairwoman of the German-Nordic Parliamentary Friendship Group
- Member of the Parliamentary Friendship Group for Relations with the SADC States