PARLIAMENT OF GEORGIA
C H A I R M A N

№ 6540/1-1

Kutaisi, 12 July 2016

Excellency,

It is my pleasure and privilege to greet You personally, along with the honorable members of the Danish Parliament and express my cordial gratitude for your active role in the unabated development of partnership between our legislatures.

2016 marks the year of parliamentary elections in Georgia. It is of vital importance that Georgia is able to conduct yet another transparent, free and fair parliamentary elections. To ensure that, we are urging international organizations and institutions to send observer missions to Georgia and monitor the proceedings of the elections.

Invitation to observe the elections has been sent to representatives of the parliamentary assemblies such as OSCE PA, NATO PA and PACE. I would like to kindly ask you to encourage the Members of your Parliament to participate through these organizations in monitoring the upcoming parliamentary elections, scheduled to take place on October 8, 2016.

Let me thank you for supporting Georgia's democratic development and use this opportunity to express to Your Excellency the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely,
