

Seminar: 'Australia Update 2016' - Save the Date!

- How will Australian Prime Minister Malcolm Turnbull's new innovation and science agenda - "The Ideas Boom" - offer new opportunities for your organisation?
- How can Australian-Danish partnerships pave the way from good ideas to commercialisation of new solutions for the global market?

We invite you to join the Australian Embassy and Dansk Industri on 28 January 2016 for an update on Australia (please see the registration details below).

Program:

16:30 Welcome comments

Jens Holst Nielsen, Director International Trade and Market Development, DI

16:40 Presentation by Australia's Ambassador to Denmark

HE Damien Miller on Australia's innovation and science agenda, highlighting market and partnership opportunities for Danish companies.

17:00 Panel Discussion and Q&A

Discussion on opportunities and advice for Danish companies looking to explore partnerships with Australia and expansion into Oceania/Asia. The panel will feature Danish businesses with recent success in Australia, including Aalborg CSP and ALK-Abello.

17:30 Informal Networking with Refreshments and Australian Wine.

18:30 Event concludes

Practical Information:

Date: Thursday, 28 January 2016

Time: 16:30 – 18:30

Venue: DI, H.C. Andersens Boulevard 18, 1553 Copenhagen V

Price: Participation in the seminar free of charge for DI members and invited guests.

Registration: Please email Cathrine Juhl Bang at international@di.dk no later than Monday, 25 January 2016.

Further Information? Contact Tania.Garry@dfat.gov.au

Confederation of Danish Industry