

Vision: To continually set new standards for lifting and handling of the wind turbine parts, and by doing that, lower the cost of energy.

Founded: 2003 by Jens Mortensen and Per Fenger Aalborg, Northern Denmark

Employees: 60 in total where are 42 engineers and of them 28 are R&D engineers

Projects: More than 500 projects from small lifting brackets to Blade Dragon and Liftra Self-Hoisting Cranes

Products: More than 30 different product with 6 patents and 4 patents pending.

Denmark
Aalborg

34 employees

Germany
Hamburg

1 employees

Spain
Bilbao

6 employees

USA
Cincinnati

8 employees

China
Tianjin

10 employees

Polen
Stettin

1 employees

Liftra Self-Hoisting Crane

Grant from EUDP kr. 3.567.825

Grant from Markedsmodningsfonden kr. 2.864.600

Project start 23rd of June 2011

Cranes sold:

December 2011: 2 pcs. to Nextera USA

December 2013: 2 pcs. to Nextera USA

January 2015: 1 pcs. to E.ON USA

July 2015: 1 pcs. Jensen Crane USA

Oktober 2015: 1 pcs. Siemens USA

November 2015: 1 pcs. Jensen Crane USA

Total orders for export 150 millions DKK.

Employees working with the crane:

Liftra DK: 20 Liftra rest of the world 7

Suppliers DK: 10

Liftra rest of the world: 7

Expected orders 2016 150 millions DKK.

Expected employees 2016:

Liftra DK: 30 Liftra World: 20

Suppliers DK: 20

Lowering the gearbox to the ground

Truck below with other gearbox

Liftra Self-Hoisting Crane climbing own lifting wire from container