WORK EXPERIENCE

I was a defenses lawyer of opinion detainees in front of the Syrian courts, practicing my job until I was forced to leave Syria in the middle of 2013.

I was elected as a member of the executive bureau of the Syrian national coordinating committee, as an independent national figure and as a vice media spokesman since March 2012.

I resigned from the executive bureau and left the committee in July 2013 because I wasn't contented about the positions ,practicing policies ,and the management of the committee:

I was one of the first activists, who called for and participated in Semiramis meeting, which was the first public meeting for the Syrian opposition after fifty years of prevention and repression.

The meeting included more than 200 opposition figures from all over Syria, and we came out with documents, which announced our support to the revolution and its aims in freedom and dignity.

I contributed in many political activities in attempt to unify the Syrian opposition.

I worked with groups of opponents and political forces from Arab and Kurdish parties, and with organizations involved with human rights to call for the so-called Aleppo Declaration in 2006-2007,
