
FOLKETINGET

Uddannelses- og Forskningsudvalget

Til: Udvalgets medlemmer

Dato: 22. november 2016

Kongres i Rzeszów, Polen om modernisering og udvikling i Ukraine med undertitlem "How to Save and Rebuild the Human Capital? The Education and Academia Reform".

Formand for Uddannelses- og Forskningsudvalget Christine Antorini har modtaget invitation til at deltage i en to-dages kongres i Rzeszów, Polen afholdt af 'Institute for Eastern Studies'.

Temaet for kongressen modernisering og udvikling i Ukraine med undertitlem "How to Save and Rebuild the Human Capital? The Education and Academia Reform".

Formanden har ikke mulighed for at deltage, og derfor opfordrede arrangøren til at andre interesserede medlemmer af udvalget kunne melde sig til. Derfor omdeler vi nu invitationen, så interesserede medlemmer kan tage kontakt. Hvis I har spørgsmål er I velkomne til at kontakte udvalgssekretær Iben Bryld Gaardmand på 6162 4869.

Med venlig hilsen

Iben Bryld Gaardmand, udvalgssekretær

Emne: Vedr.: □ Invitation to the 10th Europe-Ukraine Forum in Rzeszów, Poland (26th-28th January 2017) □

Dear Christine Antorini,

Thank you for swift answer. This is unfortunate that you cannot join Europe-Ukraine Forum. I was wondering if you could recommend us representative from The Education and Research Committee that might be interested to take part in Forum?

Thank you in advance for help.

Best regards,

Joanna Maria Czarnocka

Dear Ms Christine Antorini,

On behalf of the Institute for Eastern Studies I am honoured to invite you to the 10th Europe-Ukraine Forum that will be held in Rzeszów, city close to Polish-Ukrainian border, on 26th – 28th January 2017. This time the leading theme of the Forum will be “Opportunities Not To Be Missed”.

The debates of the Europe-Ukraine Forum 2017 will focus on the key issues of modernisation and development of Ukraine. I would highly appreciate your effort to be among our honourable guests and participants in the session entitled:

How to Save and Rebuild the Human Capital? The Education and Academia Reform

Nowadays, due to the depopulation, the importance of human capital is constantly increasing as one of the most important factors of economic development of the country. During the discussion we will address the most important problems connected with adjustment of the education system to the needs of the market and the preferred directions of economic development.

Invited guests:

Taras Kremin, Head of Subcommittee for Education, Supreme Council, Ukraine

Alida Matkovic, Croatian Representative in Steering Committee for Education,
Council of Europe, Croatia

Margret Wintermantel, President, German Academic Exchange Service
(DAAD), Germany

Jiri Zlatuska, Chairman of the Committee on Science, Education, Culture,
Youth and Sport, Chamber of Deputies, Czech Republic

Vladimir Spidla, former EU Commissioner for Employment, Social Affairs and Equal Opportunities, former Prime Minister, Director, Masaryk's Democratic Academy, Czech Republic

Like in the previous years, the Forum will be a discussion platform about current situation in the region. For more information about previous editions, please visit our web-side: <http://www.forum-ekonomiczne.pl/10th-europa-ukraina-forum/?lang=en#.WCLuPPnhDcs>

Please do not hesitate to contact me with further questions.
I am looking forward to your reply.

Best regards,
Joanna Maria Czarnocka

The Foundation Institute for Eastern Studies based in Warsaw is the main organizer of the Economic Forum held annually in Krynica/Poland for the last 25 years. It has become a major economic event in Central Eastern Europe. Each year this prestigious event is attended by high-level representatives from business, politics, academia and NGOs. The event has a long tradition of bringing together leaders from Central and Eastern Europe, Asia, America and Western Europe. Institute for Eastern Studies organizes other annual Forums in various European cities: the European Congress of Local Governments, the Europe-Ukraine Forum, the Industry Forum.
