

Gilbert F. Hougbo

President
International Fund for Agricultural Development

Gilbert F. Hougbo is the President of the International Fund for Agricultural Development (IFAD), an organization dedicated to eradicating rural poverty in developing countries and ensuring that agriculture is a central part of the international development agenda. Born and raised in rural Togo, Hougbo has spent more than 30 years working to improve the lives of some of the world's most vulnerable people, with extensive experience in political affairs, international development, diplomacy and financial management. Prior to his appointment as IFAD President, Hougbo was the Deputy Director-General of the International Labour Organization (ILO) where he led field operations in more than 100 countries and managed bilateral and multilateral partnerships. He served as Prime Minister of the Republic of Togo from 2008 to 2012, where he introduced economic reforms and enhanced the rule of law and civil liberties. From 1996 to 2008, he undertook a number of roles at the United Nations Development Programme (UNDP) including Chief of Staff and Assistant Secretary-General – Africa Regional Director, where he led poverty alleviation programmes in 45 countries in sub-Saharan Africa. Prior to this, he spent a decade in the private sector, including at Price Waterhouse, Canada, where he worked in Audit and Financial Advisory Services. Hougbo has a Maitrise en gestion d'entreprise from the University of Lomé, Togo, and a Diplôme d'Etudes Supérieures Spécialisées in Specialised Accounting from the University of Québec, Canada. He is a member of the Chartered Professional Accountants of Canada.