Dear Forum Participants,

Please accept this invitation to the 10th Parliamentary Intelligence Security Forum in Washington, D.C. The event will take place on December 7, 2017 in the Member's Room of the Library of Congress from 8:30AM until 5:00PM, concluding with a 5:30PM reception.

Participating at the 10th Parliamentary Intelligence Security Forum will be an impressive line-up of presenters, including Congressional Leadership and Chairmen, Executive Branch officials, as well as leaders from the military, financial intelligence, and private sectors from around the world.

Over the past several years, the Parliamentary Intelligence Security Forums have attracted 600 Members of Parliament and government officials from over 60 countries to discuss terrorism financing, cybersecurity, and intelligence collaboration.

Our challenges from Islamic terrorists can be greatly diminished as we continue to work together and gain a better understanding of the "tools" that are available to us to enhance our success. Your participation is very important in this dialogue. Thank you for your interest and commitment.

Kindly RSVP to Brian Kennedy (Brian.kennedy1@mail.house.gov) to confirm participation or request additional information.

Sincerely,

Robert Pittenger
Member of Congress
