Dear Forum Participants,

Thank you for your interest in the Parliamentary Intelligence-Security Forum on December 7, 2017 in Washington, D.C. To date, we already have 25 countries participating and anticipate many more.

Attached is a list of the extraordinary group of experts who will join us as speakers and panel participants in the forum, in addition to major keynote messages that will be announced. Our objective is to provide you with effective tools, that will enhance all of our collaboration relative to critical intelligence data sharing, cyber security, and counter terrorism finance.

If you have not already made plans, please contact our office to register for this important time of dialogue and exchange. We must all remain vigilant and adept, utilizing effective technology and strategies to prevent further Islamic jihadist attacks and defeat their mission.

Thank you for your partnership in this strategic gathering.

Sincerely,

Robert Pittenger
Chairman, Congressional Taskforce on Terrorism and Unconventional Warfare.
