High-Level Expert Conference

Implementing the Copenhagen Declaration – An Informal Meeting on the Convention System

Wednesday 31 October to Friday 2 November 2018
Kokkedal Castle, Denmark

As foreseen in the Copenhagen Declaration, Denmark will host a High-Level Expert Conference in Kokkedal on 31 October to 2 November 2018.

This will be an opportunity for the States Parties and other stakeholders to follow-up on the points agreed in the Copenhagen Declaration and to discuss general developments in the jurisprudence of the Court, with respect for the independence of the Court and the binding character of its judgments (para. 41 of the Declaration).

The goal is to build further on the constructive dialogue established at the 2017 High-Level Expert Conference in Kokkedal where representatives of the Council of Europe Member States met with representatives of the European Court of Human Rights (the Court), officials of the Council of Europe, national parliamentarians and judges, as well as leading legal experts from academia and civil society, to address both the immediate problems facing the Convention system and develop ideas for the long-term future.

The overall purpose of the Conference will be to explore ways to build a common human rights culture and to facilitate discussions on the caseload challenge and European supervision.

The programme is comprised of keynote speeches followed by panel discussions with participation envisaged by speakers, chairs and panel participants. The audience is encouraged to ask questions and actively participate in the discussions.

In order to encourage a free and open discussion and the sharing of information, the Conference will be held under the Chatham House Rule.
