THE NATIONAL ASSEMBLY OF BELARUS

THE COUNCIL OF REPUBLIC

THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Minsk, 20 August 2020

Your Excellency,

The presidential elections were held in Belarus on August 9, 2020. As a result, Aleksander Lukashenko was re-elected Belarusian president. The election was held in line with the Belarusian Constitution and legislation.

The majority of citizens supported the current policy aimed at building a strong independent state, the key priorities of which are people and their prosperity and safety.

Some Euro-Atlantic officials rushed to make political statements and conclusions important for Belarus, with some of them bordering on the interference with the country's domestic affairs, which is unacceptable and contradicts the universally accepted principles and norms of the international law.

It is important to look into the current situation in Belarus in an objective and calm manners.

We are ready for a constructive dialogue on this topic and the presentation of concrete irrefutable facts that reveal the background of the current events, including about interference from abroad.

Your Excellency, we urge you to help shape an objective, professional, and responsible stance of your country regarding the situation in Belarus.

Please accept, Your Excellency, the assurances of our highest consideration.

Chairwoman of the Council of Republic
