Memorandum on the OSCE PA Observation of the 3 April Presidential and Early Parliamentary Elections in Serbia

OSCE PA Election Observation Mission

Presidential and early parliamentary elections are planned to take place in Serbia on 3 April 2022, and in anticipation of an invitation to observe these elections, the OSCE PA President has decided to deploy an Election Observation Mission to work closely with the expected teams of the OSCE/ODIHR and the Parliamentary Assembly of the Council of Europe (PACE).

Nomination and Appointment of Parliamentary Observers

In accordance with the attached OSCE PA Election Observation Guidelines, national Delegations wishing to nominate their members to participate in this mission are kindly asked to complete and return to the International Secretariat at (eom@oscepa.dk) as soon as possible, but no later than Friday 4 March 2022 the following:

1. The Delegation Nomination Form,
2. An Individual Observer Nomination Form for each nominated observer,
3. A signed Statement of Nominated Election Observer for each nominated observer,
4. A signed Code of Conduct for each nominated observer,
5. A copy of the photograph page from each nominated observer's passport,
6. A photograph.

Please note that in accordance with the Guidelines nominated observers are not part of an observation mission before they have been appointed by the OSCE PA President. The International Secretariat will communicate the list of observers to delegations that have forwarded nominations following appointment by the OSCE PA President. Due to registration procedures, we may not be able to accommodate those who register after the deadline.
