

Practical information

10th meeting of the Joint Parliamentary Scrutiny Group (JPSG) on the European Union Agency for Law Enforcement Cooperation (Europol)

Format: Remote, hosted at the National Assembly

Date: 28 February 2022

Registration of participants

The meeting of the Joint Parliamentary Scrutiny Group (JPSG) on Europol will be held via videoconference from the National Assembly.

Delegations are invited to register online until Friday 18 February on the following website: <https://www.billetweb.fr/jpsg-europol>

When registering, participants are asked to indicate their requests to take the floor by ticking the relevant boxes.

If you have any questions, or want later to ask for the floor, please send an e-mail to jpsg.europol@parlue2022.fr

Participation in the videoconference

Technical details

The conference will be held using the Interactio videoconferencing and remote interpretation platform.

No special software needs to be installed to use Interactio. You will be able to participate in the meeting in your web browser by clicking on the login link that will be sent after the registration deadline, or from a room equipped with appropriate technology, for example in your Parliament.

If you are connecting with a personal device (computer or tablet), please ensure that you use a stable, high-speed internet connection, preferably wired, and a headset with a built-in microphone to ensure optimal audio and video quality. The use of a mobile phone and wireless headphones is strongly discouraged.

Following the above guidelines will greatly increase the chances that your words will be correctly translated and understood by the participants.

To participate you will need to:

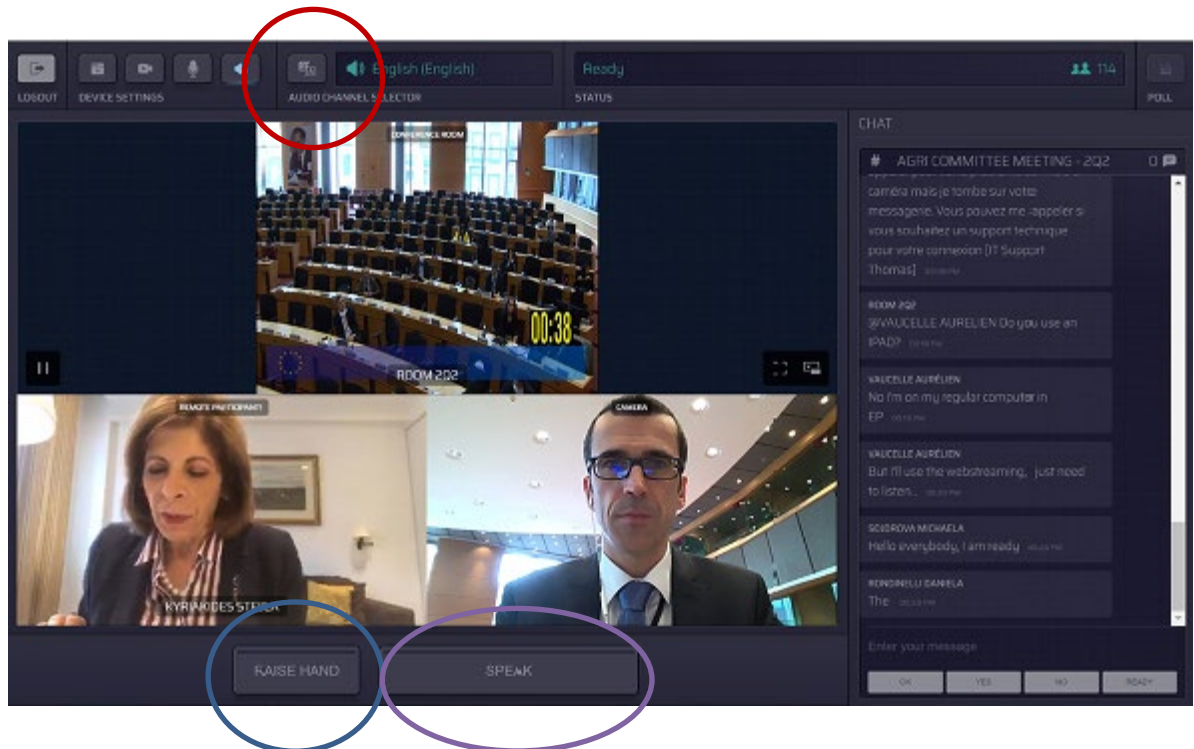

- click on the link we will send you;
- enter your email address and click NEXT;
- enter your first and last name, preceded by the two letters identifying your country.

Click on ALLOW twice to let the application use your microphone and camera.

Click on JOIN to enter the meeting.

You can choose the language in which you wish to follow the meeting at the top centre of the screen (red circle in the image below). You can ask to take the floor at the bottom left (blue circle below).

When the chairperson gives you the floor, press the SPEAK button which turns red. You will then appear on the screen. Do not forget to turn it off after you have spoken.

Tests

Connection tests will take place on Friday 25 February from 10 am to 12:30 pm and from 1:30 pm to 5 pm (CET). Registered participants will be asked to reserve a time slot to participate in the test to ensure that Interactio is working properly on their devices and their connection is good.

Interpretation

Interpretation will be provided in French, English, and German. Each delegation wishing to have recourse to its own interpreters at its own expense may express this wish to jpsg.europol@parlue2022.fr.

Documentation

A conference document, including the programme and the list of participants, will be available on parlue2022.fr or on the dedicated page on the website of the European Parliament.

Broadcasting

The conference will be broadcasted live on Monday 28 February on <https://videos.assemblee-nationale.fr/> and on <https://www.parlue2022.fr/#videos> in French, in English and German, and will be available for replay on demand.

Procedure for taking the floor

For each debate, taking the floor must be requested in advance of the meeting, ideally by ticking the appropriate box in the registration form or by sending a message to jpsg.europol@parlue2022.fr.

However, it will be possible to request the floor during the meeting by sending a message to the moderators via Interactio in the chat section.