

INNOVATION CONFERENCE

Denmark and Germany are known to offer some of the best knowledge within life science in the world and we are close partners with a rich tradition in trade and collaboration both within life science and the health sector.

On this basis, it is with great pleasure that The German Embassy in Denmark, The Danish Chamber of Commerce, The Danish-German Chamber of Commerce, and Merck Denmark invite you to join us at an extraordinary innovation conference to shed light on the future of life science in 2030.

The conference will be moderated by Anchorwoman Mette Walsted Vestergaard, among others key note speakers will be Co-Founder of Nordic Female Founders Mia Wagner, and the Danish Minister of Science and Education Jesper Petersen.
