

Foreign Minister of Pakistan

Mr. Bilawal Bhutto Zardari

Bilawal Bhutto Zardari (born 21 September 1988) is a Pakistani politician who is serving as the 37th Minister of Foreign Affairs since 27 April 2022, as well as chairman of Pakistan Peoples Party. He is the son of former Prime Minister of Pakistan Benazir Bhutto and former President of Pakistan Asif Ali Zardari.

Bilawal was appointed as a Chairman of Pakistan Peoples Party (PPP), on 30 December 2007 at the age of 19.

In the Pakistan general elections held on 25 July 2018, Pakistan Peoples Party, under the leadership of Bilawal, contested the elections and emerged as the largest party in Sindh and third largest party of Pakistan. The party won 43 seats in the National Assembly - nine more seats than in the 2013 General Elections.

On 13 August 2018, Bilawal became a member of the National Assembly of Pakistan. Journalists, Politicians and people of Pakistan praised Bilawal after he delivered his maiden speech in the parliament.