

FOLKETINGET

Udenrigsudvalget, Forsvarsudvalget, Udlændinge- og Integrationsudvalget og Det Udenrigspolitiske Nævn

Til: Udvalgenes og Nævnets medlemmer og stedfortrædere
Dato: 10. november 2021

Invitation til lukket ekspertmøde om situationen i Syrien

Folketingets Udenrigsudvalg arrangerer et lukket ekspertmøde om situationen i Syrien.

Ekspertmødet finder sted

tirsdag den 23. november 2021 kl. 13.15 – 14.15
i vær. 2-133 og via Teams.

På ekspertmødet vil Marie Forestier, researcher fra Amnesty International, og Nadia Hardman, researcher fra Human Rights Watch, holde oplæg med udgangspunkt i deres seneste rapporter om emnet.

De to rapporter er vedlagt og kan også læses via links her:

- Amnesty Internationals seneste rapport om Syrien (51 sider) (udkom den 7.9.2021): Syria: "You're going to your death" Violations against Syrian refugees returning to Syria
- Human Rights Watch' seneste rapport om Syrien (83 sider) (udkom den 20.10.2021): "Our lives are like death"

Se CV'er for Marie Forestier og Nadia Hardman nedenfor.

De to eksperter deltager via Teams.

Tilmelding til mødet skal ske til amalie.andresen@ft.dk senest tirsdag den 16. november 2021. Mødet gennemføres kun, hvis minimum 3-4 MF'er tilmelder sig.

Med venlig hilsen
Amalie Andresen,
Udvalgsassistent

CV for Marie Forestier

Amnesty International

Marie Forestier is a researcher and advisor on refugee and migrant rights for the MENA region at the International Secretariat of Amnesty International. Her work has focused on how civilians have been affected by conflict, displacement, Syrian refugees and women's rights. She has been working in the MENA region for a decade, as a journalist and as a researcher for academia and various NGOs.

CV for Nadia Hardman,

Researcher, Refugee and Migrant Rights Division, Human Rights Watch

Nadia Hardman is a researcher in the Refugee and Migrants Rights Division of Human Rights Watch, monitoring and documenting human rights abuses against asylum seekers, refugees, and migrant populations.

Prior to Human Rights Watch, she led the International Rescue Committee's protection program for Syrian refugees in Lebanon and was based in Mosul, Iraq with the Norwegian Refugee Council working with internally displaced persons (IDPs) between 2017 and 2018. Nadia has worked with refugee and IDP populations in Myanmar, Thailand and Palestine and was a Program Lawyer for the International Bar Association's Human Rights Institute working on rule of law issues in Azerbaijan, Cambodia, Egypt and Tajikistan from 2013 to 2015. She is a qualified UK lawyer with a Masters in Human Rights from University College London. Nadia speaks fluent French and Italian.