

To: Heads of OSCE PA Delegations
CC: Secretaries of OSCE PA Delegations

27 January 2023

Dear Heads of Delegations,

The parliamentary elections are planned to take place in Kazakhstan on 19 March 2023. Following an invitation to observe these elections, and after appropriate communication to the Bureau, the President has decided to deploy an Election Observation Mission to this important election to work closely with an expected team from the OSCE/ODIHR.

In accordance with the attached OSCE PA Election Observation Guidelines, national Delegations wishing to nominate their members to participate in this mission are kindly asked to complete and return to the International Secretariat at (eom@oscepa.dk) as soon as possible, but no later than Friday, 24 February 2023 the following:

1. The Delegation Nomination Form,
2. An Individual Observer Nomination Form for each nominated observer,
3. A signed Statement of Nominated Election Observer for each nominated observer,
4. A signed Code of Conduct for each nominated observer,
5. A signed Accreditation form for each nominated observer,
6. A copy of the photograph page from each nominated observer's passport,
7. A photograph.

Please note that in accordance with the Guidelines nominated observers are not part of an observation mission before they have been appointed by the OSCE PA President. In appointing Members to this Election Observation Mission, the President can take appropriate steps to balance the composition and to preserve a political and geographical balance of Members within the mission. The International Secretariat will communicate the list of observers to delegations that have forwarded nominations following appointment by the OSCE PA President. Due to registration procedures, we may not be able to accommodate those who register after the deadline.

The mission will work to put in place disease mitigation measures including social distancing where possible. However, participants should understand that observation is a physical practice requiring interaction with a wide range of people. Observers are expected to comply with all national laws and regulations of the host country, including health regulations. All participants are expected to obtain a rapid or PCR test for COVID-19 not older than 48 hours prior to arrival in Kazakhstan. If the test indicates positive for COVID, observers are expected to not travel for the observation mission. Members are requested to ensure that they have full health insurance coverage valid for the duration of their stay in Kazakhstan.

Further information, including a detailed programme, will be distributed to participants in due course. Briefings for the mission are expected to be held in-person on 17-18 March 2023 in Astana. No remote participation will be foreseen. Members are reminded that in accordance with the OSCE PA's Astana Declaration of 2008 and the Guidelines, participants are expected to participate in the full briefing programme as well as the debriefing on the day following the election.

I wish to remind you that national parliaments are responsible for their Members' expenses.

Yours sincerely,
