Emne: LAST INFO EMAIL - FEMM ICM Strengthening the Women, Peace and Security Agenda, Thursday, 6 March 2025, from 9:00 to 12:30

Prioritet: Høj

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2025

WOMEN ARE FIGHTING FOR PEACE, EVERY DAY, EVERYWHERE

The world needs more women in influential positions to drive peace processes.

Dear Colleagues,

In the run up to the Interparliamentary Committee Meeting of the Committee on Women's Rights and Gender Equality (FEMM), which will take place on Thursday, 6 March 2025, from 9:00 to 12:30 (CET) in the Antall building, room 6Q2, European Parliament, Brussels, please find enclosed the following documents:

- Latest version of the draft programme,
- Practical information note with all details regarding the distribution of access cards/badges to the EP, the entrance to be used to access the meeting, interpretation during the meeting, speaking time arrangements, Wi-Fi access and other useful information,
- List of participants from national Parliaments who registered for the meeting.

The meeting is organised on the occasion of International Women's Day 2025 on the theme: "Strengthening the Women, Peace and Security Agenda –Upholding Women's Rights in Defence, Security and Peace Building". This year's theme highlights several priorities starting with the need to ensure women's full participation in decision-making processes, particularly in defence, security, and peacebuilding, where their leadership leads to more inclusive and lasting peace.

Please be kindly advised that this event is totally paperless and there will be no paper copies in the meeting room. The latest versions of meeting documents will be available on the website of the EP's Directorate for Relations with National Parliaments accessible HERE.

INTERPRETATION

Please refer to the Practical Info Note enclosed in this mail.

ACCREDITATION

As previously announced, new security measures imply that all access badges including badges for Members of Parliaments have to be personally printed at the kiosks in Station Europe.

Duly registered participants will personally print and collect their access cards on Thursday, 6 March at dedicated interactive kiosks. Badges have to be printed at the kiosk personally, so delegation representatives cannot collect the badges for others.

The kiosks are located within the Station Europe building accessible from Place Luxembourg (please see the map in the Practical Info Note). Visitors will have to scan the ID document that they registered with in order to print the badge. The badge can only be printed on the day of the event during opening hours of Station Europe, starting from 07.30. Staff from the Directorate for Relations with National Parliaments will be there from 8.30 to 9.00. Personnel from the European Parliament will assist the delegates.

SPEAKING CARDS

There will be speaking cards distributed in the meeting rooms for Members who wish to request the floor for the 2 panels (please refer to the enclosed PIN for details).

WEBSTREAMING

As a standard practice, the whole meeting will be web-streamed. You can find the links per day in the Practical Information Note attached herewith.

WALKING LUNCH

Following the ICM, participants are kindly invited to a buffet lunch, which will take place on Thursday, 6 March 2025, from 12:30 to 13:45 (CET) in the Catering Area of the Antall Building, 3rd floor, European Parliament.
